

Jahn the Magic Man Features Sporting Goods, Toys, Tricks

The most unique store of its kind in the South is the description given Jahn the Magic Man, Inc. Featuring the only Gilbert Hall of Science in the South, the firm also has a complete line of sporting goods. Magic tricks and hobbies also may be found here.

A Miami institution for 15 years, Jahn the Magic Man, Inc., was founded by Leroy Jahn. For seven years, Jahn astounded and mystified people with his magic under the stage name of "Leroy, the Man of Many Mysteries." Now retired from the stage, Jahn actively operates his business with his son Marvin "Buddy" Jahn.

The Gilbert Hall of Science at Jahn's is truly a display worth seeing. It shows a complete array of Gilbert scientific and educational toys . . . chemistry sets, microscope sets, electricity sets, tool boxes, and of course the ever popular Erector sets and American Flyer trains.

The American Flyer train layout in Jahn's window is a marvel to behold. Lifelike in every carefully placed detail, it is the dream of every boy who sees it, whether he is six or 96. A complete line of American Flyer train accessories also may be purchased here.
